

Optimal Technologies International Inc. is expanding to become the leader in innovative grid optimization and building automation technologies. Optimal Technologies (US) Inc., a subsidiary of Optimal Technologies International Inc., is seeking experienced professionals with exceptional backgrounds in the design, and implementation of complex optimization, software and hardware systems.

This is an opportunity to be a part of a world-class team in an exciting and extraordinary time of Optimal's growth.

Position: Technical Lead, AskOT User Interface

This is a salaried full time position.

Responsibilities: Responsible for all the technical activities of the AskOT user interface development team.

- Coordinate the 3-4 member AskOT user interface development team.
- Transform UI functional requirements into technical requirements.
- Identify, prioritize and delegate UI development tasks to the team members.
- Ensure that each member of the team follows the company coding standards, maintains high code quality and performs unit tests.
- Set up proper QA measures to make sure that the technical implementation meets the functional requirements.
- Identify and report any technical issues and concerns to the project manager and help resolve them on time.

Location: Research Triangle Park Area, North Carolina

Compensation: Excellent compensation and benefit plan including participation in bonus, stock option, and stock ownership plans. Compensation is based on experience and performance.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or higher degree in Computer Engineering or Computer Science or equivalent.
- A minimum of 7 years of user interface design and development experience and minimum of 2 years experience in leading a team with 2 or more people.
- Proficiency in user interface development tools or languages such as Adobe Flex/Flash, XML, Ajax, JSP, Javascript.
- Experience in developing the UI as web applications or standalone applications.
- Excellent communication skills, good team player, upbeat and flexible attitude and fluent in English.

Optimal Technologies is interested in inquiries and submittals from qualified candidates for this position. Please send inquiries, resumes, and salary requirements in Adobe Acrobat (pdf) format to askot-careers@otii.com